Description

Bureau 1940 created by Dudouyt under the brand La Gentilhommière. Wide belt tray, half circle on one side. Beautiful cylindrical foot. A retractable foot for an extension (absent). Born in 1885, Charles Dudouyt began an artistic career after studying at Germain Pilon school. He paints, draws and earns his living by illustrating publications, notably for Calmann-Levy and for the Butter Plate. In 1918, when he returned from the war, he designed and made lampposts, lamp shades and various decorative objects with his wife. This leads him to create in 1920, in Pontoise, a furniture factory. In 1933, he moved to Paris he founded the Mansion which includes a workshop and a shop. He creates the woodwork of the Daunou bar, decorates the apartment of Mistinguett and other celebrities.
