Description

Pendulum of terminal shape apparent movement (signed patented Brocot), rosewood and marquetry of lemon threads, with a bronze plate on the front for a thermometer, silvered bronze dial with Roman numerals signed Goamond in Vitry-le-François, vintage Charles X nineteenth century. This clock is in good condition. It works, maybe to revise. We have the pendulum but not the key. The thermometer is missing. A note: some scratches and tiny slot on the wood (including the back, movement of the balance), some scratches and wear of time, see photos.
