Description

Beautiful round coffee table or pedestal House Baguès around 1960. Height: 50cm diameter tray: 70cm. It is indeed a very nice round pedestal composed of a quadripode frame with gilded brass spacer surmounted by a glass top églomisé with oxidation decoration surrounded by a serrated gallery. I do not present the Maison Baguès in Paris as its reputation is not to be made, it has notably disseminated many articles in the years 50/70, of which luminaries in bronze or brass, as well as small furniture, low tables, pedestal tables, sofa ends ... Its competitors at the time were the houses Jansen, Leleu, Royère, Matégot etc ... This furniture is now very popular with fans, especially those glass églomisé more sought after than those in France. marble or simple glass. This table is in good condition.
