Description

Pair of dishes from the service "Gardening Trophies" or "Agricola" representing the rooster and the gardener's hat Very good condition, no wear, just a hair at 4 o'clock on a flat and not through Signature brush Cg and buffer on the back diameter: 31.5 cm The Primavera workshop, an art studio in the Printemps department stores, was created in 1912 by René Guilleré, a great art critic. Colette Guéden, born in 1905, entered this workshop in 1927 as a decorator, then as a workshop leader, and then became artistic director until 1972. She quickly became very famous because it synthesizes the aspirations and talents of the young modern woman of that time.
