

Pomona, Original Plaster By Lucile Passavant, France Circa 1960

Description

Statue of Pomona, original plaster by Lucile Passavant, from the sale of his studio.
(Hold the stamp of the workshop sale).

Height: 5 ft. 4.6 in

Depth: 26.77 in (maximum, at the base)

Width: 21.26 in (at the base)

Lucile Passavant was a poetess, painter, pastel painter, sculptor and French wood engraver born in Paris on June 11, 1910 and died in Poissy on April 2, 2012.

She lived with Aristide Maillol and worked for him as a wood engraver and model for several years.

5 200 EUR

Signature : Lucile Passavant, France vers 1960

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Plaster

Width : 54 cm (maximum, à la base) - 21.26 in (at the base)

Height : 164 cm - 5 ft. 4.6 in

Depth : 68 cm (maximum, à la base) - 26.77 in (maximum, at the base)

<https://www.proantic.com/en/520503-pomona-original-plaster-by-lucile-passavant-france-circa-1960.html>

Dealer

Galerie Canavèse

Decorative Arts of the eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth Centuries

Tel : 09 50 75 60 25

Mobile : 06 08 41 29 80

Fax : 01 42 60 50 26

21 rue des Saints Pères

Paris 75006