Description

Pair of 1960s large armchairs in brown leather and elm.

Pierre Chapo (1928-1987) is born in a family of craftsmen.

After his regular studies, he worked in the workshop of a navy carpenter.

He was graduated architect in 1958 from the Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Beaux-Arts in Paris, after having travelled in the United States and in Europe.

He opened his own workshop first in Clamart as well as a shop in Paris.

Chapo's work was inspired by Charlotte Perriand. Ten years later he settled down in Gordes, where he based the Société Chapo.
