Description

Rare chair in natural wood, very richly and finely carved, origin Tonkin, Indochina, around 1900. This beautiful seat is curved on all sides and extraordinarily carved various decorations of dragons, fantastic animals, grotesques or turtles. The sculpture work is truly exceptional and extremely fine. The details are impressive. Not a single cm of wood has escaped the sculptor! Satin fabric with purple color. The trim is old and has lost its firmness, but it does not require immediate repair. The whole is in good condition of house. Some small gaps without incidence are worth noting in the sculptures.
