Description

Description :

Vermeil, plate, pearls, enamels, pietra dura...

This exceptional work comes from a Russian or Austro-Hungarian workshop. It represents a sled in the snow driven by a Cupid.

The plinth dressed in a vermeil border is adorned with enamel beads and crystals. The sled is entirely covered with a rich work of enamels, rows of small baroque pearls as well as cabochons of hard stones.

The horses held by a complex system of harnesses are made of silver and dressed in an enamel caparison. The work is very rich in detail and materials, making this object a great masterpiece of civil goldsmithery (50 x 26 cm).

The photos do not quite reflect on the one hand the heat of the colors of the enamel, the
