

Antimaconic Bas Relief In Bronze In The Image Of Marat, "the Friend Of The People". Bush 1868

280 EUR

Signature : Buisson 1868

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Diameter : 21,3 cm

Description

Antimaconic bas relief in bronze, like Jean-Paul Marat 1743/1793.

Marat, seen from the left, wearing the phrygian cap with revolutionary cockade.

Signed: Buisson 1868.

Under the bust; "l'ami du peuple".

Behind the neck: "ne pouvant le coronpre ils lont assassiné" as well as the level, a freemason symbol, crossed by a knife.

Diameter: 213 mm.

Jean-Paul Marat, born May 24, 1743 in Boudry (Principality of Neuchâtel), assassinated on July 13, 1793 in Paris, is a French doctor, physicist, journalist and politician.

He was a mountain deputy at the Convention at the time of the revolution.

Dealer

Antiquités de la Cathédrale

Objets de curiosité, de collection, de vitrine et tableaux

Tel : 0667172702

9 Place saint Etienne

Auxerre 89000

His assassination by Charlotte Corday allows the hebertists to make him a martyr of the revolution and to install his remains in the Pantheon for a few months.