Description

Pair of Louis XVI style candelabras, with 3 sconces, in chiseled and silvered bronze. The 4-light bouquet is linked by sconces with laurel branch decorations supporting large, gadrooned bobèches on which rest binets decorated with sheets of water. Central barrel with grooves surmounted by a falling garland simulating bay leaves continuously Bell with tripod heel decorated with large grooves, crowned atop water leaves. Signature based on the 2 pedestals: BOINTABURET A PARIS. No 18672 Baccarat crystal cups are fixed at the top of the binets, in order to collect the waxes from the candles. The house BOIN - TABURET also produced this version of candelabra in solid silver, whose gross total weight exceeds 9200 grs.
