

Pair Of Large Rocaille Ewers XIXth

5 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat parfait

Material : Bronze

Description

Description :

Chiseled gilded and brown patina bronze.

These large ewers each consist of a base with large moldings from which emerge asymmetrical patterns in castings, "frost" typical of the exuberance of the style. The body, also adorned with leafy scrolls and flowers, has a neck and a beak all in scrolls like the handle. On a console two different putti carry reeds. Nineteenth-style ewers are usually Renaissance-inspired, so this rococo model is particularly unusual, with all the virtuosity and uncompromising refinement of this style. The quality of execution and carving is very present, served by a size larger than usual.
