Description

19th century, Oriental lacquered and gilt wood console table

Size H 80 x L 110 x P 45 cm

Particular oriental console table, made at the end of the 19th century, in black lacquered wood and polychrome decorations. The console table has a curvy and graceful line, with four curved legs and sides with a molded profile and edged with gold thread. The legs and sides have a rich decoration with phytomorphic motifs in green lacquer edged and floral elements in ivory lacquer. The top shows a refined and elegant decoration with golden geometric motifs, green and ivory floral motifs. Inside a second frame in golden thread are also depicted two large birds in light lacquer and gold.
