

Bronze Tank Top - Nelson

Description

The tank top, bronze sculpture by Joseph-Antoine (pseudonym Nelson) Van Den Kerckhove (Brussels 1849-1910) produced towards the end of the 19th - beginning of the 20th century. Probably executed by the Compagnie des Bronzes de Bruxelles. Joseph-Antoine (pseudonym Nelson) was born into a family of sculptors. His father Augustin (pseudonym Sabias, 1825-1895), his uncle Louis (1814-1875), his great-uncle Jean-François (1815-1885), his nephew Godefroid (1841-1913) and his sister Hortense will have dedicated their existence to sculpture. Joseph-Antoine trained in his father's studio and at the Brussels Academy. From 1890 to 1910, he worked in Paris and lived for a while in London. The many busts of pretty young ladies date from this period. Collaborates in the
