Description

A true icon of Scandinavian design, Arne Jacobsen left a lasting mark on the 20th century with his visionary approach, blending functionality with minimalist elegance. This rare set, composed of an Ant chair and its matching table, showcases the refinement and innovation of his work. Crafted in rosewood -- a precious, now rare wood that is increasingly difficult to import -- the ensemble embodies the essence of modernist sophistication. The chair, one of Jacobsen's most iconic designs, captivates with its organic lines and perfect balance. Signed, this set is a collector's piece for discerning design lovers and aesthetes. 70*60/69cm ou 140*70cm
