Description

Magnificent small 18th century Transition chest of drawers, in walnut. Nicely curved on the front, it has three drawers, the top one is slightly smaller than the other two, thus giving an additional elegance to the whole. Beautiful work of sculptures in shells and acanthus leaves on the drawers, the front cross member, as well as on the side cross members. Hoof feet at the front and at the back. The handles and entrances, all in bronze, are posterior. Furniture in very good condition of the house, old restorations have been carried out on three legs as well as on the bottom of the front cross member. Very beautiful patina, walnut with a beautiful honey color. Delivery quote by carrier, contact us
