Description

beautiful Renaissance style sideboard or cabinet at the bottom of the cabinet, dating from the end of the 19th century, early 20th century.

very beautiful of quality, this sideboard is in natural walnut and in gilded walnut decorated with polychrome elements.

Its curved shape on the sides is reminiscent of certain Italian furniture, in Lombardy, etc.

The gilded wood patterns form arabesques and floral ornaments from which elements of green and red emerge.

the sides simulate false walnut drawers, and the door is dressed in four beautiful cartouches of gilded wood all slightly different.

the uprights are decorated with friezes of piastres in gilded wood. It opens with a door revealing an interior furnished with a shelf.

The original key is missing, but we have a key to open and close it.

very good general condition.

a very pretty sideboard with a door, quite shallow and extremely decorative, a spectacular setting in itself. the arcuate sides lighten the whole and create an unusual decorative movement.
