Description

The ingenious knight Don Quixote de la Manche, translation of the masterpiece by Miguel de Cervantès.

Four volumes of a small In-12 with illustrated and engraved titles, etchings and a large folding map of Spain.

Published in Paris in 1821 by Th. Desoer, bookseller at 2, rue Christine in Paris, printed by De Fain, Place de l'Odéon.

The backs are branded and gilded, a little used, with a gilded thread on the boards.

The pages are clear with very readable text, with no major accidents other than a tear in the card.

Everything is in good condition despite the usual wear on the edges and corners.
