Description

Set of 5 miniatures indians painting with real gold, from late XIXth to early centuries -part of a collection of 23 ones (please check my other Proantic announcements)

All with deep light oak modern frames, and bespoke cardboard white and black frames with bevels? some on thinner paper pages (transparent to light) , others on thicker media (between paper and cardboard)

The pages are painted according to the ancestral tradition with brushes with only one squirrel hair - which obviously allows an exceptional line finesse and worked with hilkali -gold ink.

These miniatures could be sold as a set (6800EUR /5) or separated with following prices:
