

Gilt Bronze And White Marble Portico Clock

Description

This striking mantel clock is a true testament to the exquisite craftsmanship and refined aesthetic of the Empire period in 19th-century France. The clock showcases a harmonious blend of form and function, typical of the style, with a strong emphasis on classical motifs and decorative elements.

The clock is presented in a classic architectural form, with two elegant columns supporting a central archway adorned with a row of stars. The columns are adorned with gilded bronze capitals and bases, adding a touch of opulence. Above the dial, a decorative frieze featuring stylized winged creatures and stars adds a dramatic and decorative element.

The clock rests on a rectangular base crafted from white marble, creating a visually striking contrast.
