Description

very beautiful set consisting of a vinegar cruet on a pedestal with 2 crystal decanters probably from the crucible to note the stoppers are in silver this set is hallmarked on the old man moreover the corole is missing on one of them and the other has an accident visible and the base of a handle has a liveable slot on the clichés. (photos on request) of an assorted mustard pot as well as two salt pots with their spoons very interesting intertwining decorations but also of serpents from the Empire period - restoration The set resting on lions paws
