Description

Venice mirror, antique decor with portraits of characters, and allegory to justice in cartouches, pine frames, Circa 1970, Good condition Width: 90 cm Height: 130 cm Depth: 8 cm Character: The Allegory of the Justice represents the Greek Goddess Themis, daughter of Ouranos (God of Heaven) and Gaia (Goddess of Earth). It symbolizes immanent justice and established order. From the Greek "divine law", Themis remains to the right of her husband Zeus. Advisor to the latter, she wants the gods to have a good relationship with each other and has the gift of predicting the future. Bundle: The bundle represents the authority of the magistrate and the respect due to those who dispense justice. Libra: The scale represents the notions of balance, harmony and order. Blindfold: The blindfold is a
