Description

"René Lalique Opalescent Roscoff Open Cup"
Large opalescent shallow bowl with repeating fish design amongst bubbles Introduced in 1932 Marcilhac page ref 306 Model no 10-283 designed by René Lalique in 1932, the Roscoff Bowl is named after a beautiful fishing port in Bretagne, France. Water droplets adorn the fish which form a frieze around the bowl. Fish, a symbol of life, fertility and prosperity, is a recurring theme in Lalique's works.
