Description

Lovely Art Nouveau planter in polychrome porcelain bisque from the famous Manufacture with the pink triangle, that is to say Royal Dux in Bohemia. A flower-woman with long hair, in the style of Alphons Mucha, is casually stretched out on the edge. It is framed by several wild roses on both sides in significant relief forming handles. At the front as at the back, the same floral repertoire is present. The decoration is delicately underlined by hand with sepia enamel, which further accentuates the relief. The coin is signed with the pink triangular stamp and bears the numerical references 1022 in hollow and 63 manuscript in enamel. Very beautiful amatie gilding enhanced by hand with gold on all the reliefs. On the front as on the back, a representation of the flower treated in shiny white
