

Powder Horn, Germany XVIIth Century

370 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : 19 cm

Diameter : 7 cm environ

Description

Beautiful and unusual Germanic powder horn, probably half of the 17th century.

The body of the object consists of a cut cow's horn.

The lower end is closed by a metal plate screwed with a large central screw.

The upper end is closed by a thick plate on which are fixed the spout, and the opening mechanism.

The mechanism is in perfect working order. A lever is used to act on the door which prevents the exit of the powder.

The orifice is kept closed by an external spring.

Complete object, original, not frequently seen.
