Description

This elegant pair of vases showcases the craftsmanship and artistry of 19th-century metalworking. Cast in brass and likely patinated for a rich, dark finish, they exhibit a striking combination of form and decorative elements.

Key Features:

Dramatic Form: The vases feature a dramatic serpentine form, with elongated necks and flowing handles that resemble stylized serpents.

Ornate Decoration: The surface of the vases is adorned with intricate cast details, possibly depicting mythological figures or scenes.

Patinated Finish: The dark patina gives the brass a rich and antique appearance, enhancing the overall aesthetic of the vases.

Gilded Accents: The addition of gilded accents,
