Description

Beautiful sewing box of precious wood inlaid, from the Louis XIV period, whose lid at the time received a pincushion. This box, very thick, develops 8 sides of marquetry in amaranth, boxwood and rosewood. Inside is rosewood, the cover lid is adorned with a finial at each corner. Locksmithing is extraordinary: each hinge is a piece of goldsmithery engraved on steel with a historical reading: Head of Minerva, 3 fleur-de-lys, Mascarons of a lion-man, two back-to-back snakes... the buttons opening are also engraved with fleur-de-lys... note that the opening push button... can be pulled out. We are attaching an 18th century pincushion, gold and silver embroidered on silk, with the monogram (M. A) which breathes well with it. Work from the 17th century of high quality, and
