Description

Important set of a Louis XIII style bedroom in oak richly carved with foliage scrolls, character masks, grotesques as well as cartouches decorated with fruit. This set is composed of:

- A four-poster bed with bedding support made to measure. The upper part of the canopy is embellished with its blue bed canopy decorated with fleur-de-lys and the uprights are in twisted columns.
- A headboard sculpted with the same ornaments as the bed. It opens with a frieze drawer whose handle is sculpted with an animal head and opens with a door below sculpted on the front with an oval cartouche. The interior is composed of 2 shelves placed on fixed cleats. The rear is paneled and rests on 2 flattened ball feet at the front and 2 straight rear feet.
