Description

Portrait of a Piedmontese nobleman and a military officer, House of Savoy, early 18th century Italian School Beautiful large portrait of a Piedmontese nobleman and a military officer from the 18th century, oil on canvas. Stunning detailed portrait of the nobleman showing the city in the distance wearing white and red armor and sleeved jacket. Probably a General of the House of Savoy during the reign of Victor Amadeus II of Sardinia, a superb detail of an accomplished painter and a rare early portrait of a key part of the historic House of Savoy dynasty after several successful campaigns and wars. Presented in an old ebony frame. Dimensions: 110cm x 85cm framed approximately
