Description

Important tobacco jar representing a revolutionary with a grimacing face and wearing a Phrygian cap.

a very beautiful and quite unusual tobacco jar of very good quality.

The face is very well done with great care, does it remind you of someone?

the Phrygian cap serves as a lid.

It also weighs quite heavy because the terracotta was used with a lot of thickness of material, it's quite unusual, and if you look closely at the photos we discover traces of sculptor's instruments inside confirming a handmade and neat.

19th century work with a very beautiful waxed patina. a very beautiful tobacco jar with an expressive face, ideal for integrating a collection
