Description

Would we blame an ancient Corinthian capital for the lacks and the patina that give it all its splendour? We will thus have the indulgence to recognize the charm of this gilded wooden lamp that time has not entirely spared! But all the same, let us recognize the elegance of its line and the humility of its black marble base. We would see it surrounded by books...

This lamp in condition works with a bayonet bulb. The electrical system works perfectly and the lamp is sold in condition (see photographs).
