Description

Old oil painting on canvas representing the mystical marriage of Saint Catherine. The work is rich in iconographic inventions and in tune with full-bodied and lively colors, with effects of great preciousness. wedding ring. Catherine's status as the bride of Jesus is evidenced by the lavish dress with enormous puffed sleeves and the magnificence of the jewelry worn, including an intricate headdress, a string of pearls with a ruby pendant, and pearl earrings . The scene witnesses an angel with a piercing frontal portrait, with expressive use of his hands. The style is the artist's happiest, with large layers of intense color, intricate spatial relationships, overabundant drapes and serene atmospheres, accompanied by a refined taste for detail. Measures: 115x89cm. Provenance: Naples 18th century. Document:
