Description

A very pretty pair of medal-coloured patina bronzes representing two porters in the style of the Renaissance.

take a good look at the expressive faces, the clothes and the finely braided hoods.

the details are superb and a very beautiful carving highlights these characters from the Renaissance.

they are as if in motion and recall characters from the German school of the 16th and 17th centuries like famous sculptors like Troger etc...

note that one of them has a small lack on his breastplate, small holes on one of the terraces and clogged on the second.

inventory or collection labels under the terrace.

one of them marked :à Brest on the back.

a pair of bronzes forming very decorative pendants with a strong spirit in the taste of the
