Description

Antique chest of drawers with two drawers with structure in exotic wood veneer and inlay of precious wood essences surmounted by a top in red marble from France, first half of the 18th century. The front is marked by two prominent drawers arranged on two rails, both graphically underlined by two turns of wire. A beautiful reserve of diamonds inlaid on the inside frames the metal gills, knuckle handle, small apron in chevron veneer. On the sides, the rhombus is repeated, obtained thanks to a skilful combination of precious woods on the walnut briar mirror. Typical truncated pyramidal legs ennobled by nets placed on the front to emphasize the angles. Conditions: Restored by our master craftsmen with the traditional method of shellac and artisanal alcohol. Provenance: Naples 18th
