engraver-geographer born in 1646, died in Paris on October 15, 1720, executed more than 600 maps or plans, including France political, administrative, ecclesiastical, hydrographic, orographic, etc., as well as various bordering countries. His maps are distinguished by their ornamental side and the picturesqueness of their historiated frames. He had the title of geographer to the king. All our maps and engravings are accompanied by a certificate of authenticity.
