Description

Majestic entirely handmade wooden sculpture by Austrian sculptor and designer Karl Hagenauer, representing a reclining deer. The entire body of the deer is made of wood, and its antlers are made of bronze :-). The taut, pure lines and geometric shapes give a very modern and timeless look to this Art Deco period sculpture. This very "design" or even "cartoonish" look is the trademark of the famous designer Karl Hagenauer, whose animal sculptures are always very successful.

Signatures and seals are engraved under the deer:
