Description

Octagonal mirror in Venice at the beginning of the 20th century.

Superb model with triple level hollow bezel. Each piece of beading is guilloché with a grinder on the edges.

These mirrors are old, old-fashioned mercury with a reflection color in shades of gray.

The bezels are held by crystal daisies.

This mirror can be presented vertically (more trendy) or horizontally (less flattering).

State. Some traces of detachment of the silvering on 2 of the 24 glazing beads, with a slight chip at the bottom of one of these 2 pieces.

Dimensions: Height: 90 cm
