Description

Exceptional wash drawing with heightened gouache and watercolor from the 18th century. Representing a scene of shepherds and flock returning from pasture. In very good condition, in its frame and its old protective glass. Magnificent colors and above all remarkable technique of finesse and precision of the line. Probably from a great painter-draughtsman's hand! Provenance from the private collection of a castle! Format of 50x40 cm with frame and 39 x29 cm without. Do not miss ! Superb and rare in this quality!
